2009 - WHAT A BUSY YEAR!

Hello family!

As many of us are spread around the world, I have decided to start a new tradition by making family calendars so we can stay connected through photos and anecdotes - little things to make us smile and laugh as we remember this past year and look forward to the coming months.

There have been so many milestones: John turned 40 in January and he was surprised by his sister who flew in! Sarah started school with a skip, kissing me goodbye in the schoolyard and has not looked back since. Chloe started to walk and now will not stop talking! She is as lively as ever and wants to keep up with her older sister. She turned 2 in March with a great bowling party.

Gran and Andrew visited on their way back from Europe and we spent many memorable days at their farm, feeding the donkey across the road and rolling down the hill.

Grandma flew up from Florida a few times. Her last summer visit was a full family gathering complete with cake and seven minute icing.

Sadly, we said goodbye to Heather Rogers in March as the entire clan gathered for to remember her life and a beautiful and very moving musical tribute.

May you all have a healthy and happy year!

Amy

JANUARY

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

Stopping by woods on a snowy evening - Robert Frost

When the sun is out and the wind is still,
You're one month on in the middle of May.
But if you so much as dare
to speak,
a cloud come over the
sunlit arch,
And wind comes off a
frozen peak,
And you're two months

MAY

"A swarm of bees in May
Is worth a load of hay;
A swarm of bees in June
Is worth a silver spoon;
A swarm of bees in July
Is not worth a fly."
- Rhyme from England
